A           Where did you get this?

B           Never mind that.

A           Did you steal it?

B           Does it matter?

A           It does!

B           I disagree.

A           I can't- We can't-

B           Are you telling me you don't want it?

A

B           That's what I thought.

A           Still doesn't feel right.

B           No, it doesn't.
